

$4.95 a Suit

Beginnig this date we have placed on sale all Genuine Palm Beach Suits for $4.95. These suits are the equal in style and workmanship of any shown in Macon and are $7.50 and $8 values.

If the mosquitos trouble you, phone us for one of our PERFECTION CANOPIES—Two prices $1.50 and $2.00.

Walter B. Patty.

The Bookstore SELLS

Good Year, and
U. S. Tires and Tubes
Gasoline
and Motor Oil

Your Tires gladly fill with Air regardless of where you buy your gasoline or tires

The Attention of the Public is called to our

Special Prices

on

Men and Boys'
Palm Beach Suits

All Wash Pants Sold at Reduction

C. D. FEATHERSTON

Personal and Local Items

Mrs. D. W. Dent was in the city Wednesday.

Mrs. Mattie Cunningham is visiting relatives in Brooksville.

Little Miss Sarah McHenry has been ill several days this week.

Mr. W. F. Triplett of Crawford was in Macon on business today.

Mr. Charles Scales, Jr., visited friends in Columbus, Monday.

Hon. John R. Dinamore spent several days this week in West Point.

Miss Mary Dent spent the week in Memphis with her uncle, Judge Minor. Superintendent of Education Chandler has been in Jackson on business this week.

Misses Ruth Cole and Annie Delle Douglas visited relatives in West Point.

Mrs. R. L. Rhymes and children spent the week end in their old home in Tupelo.

Mr. J. L. Burke of Ackerman, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Berkley Maury.

Mrs. Heath Chambliss and children of Laurel are with Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Jones.

Mr. W. T. Parker of Carrollton, Ala., was in Macon on business this week.

Mr. Nick Rodger, Jr., of Chickasha, Okla., is visiting relatives in the county.

Mr. and Mrs. Walton Martin of Brooksville are visiting relatives east of Macon.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Cunningham and the twins, of Brooksville, spent Sunday in Macon.

Miss Rhymes of Crystal Springs is a guest in the home of her brother, Mr. R. L. Rhymes.

Mr. L. L. Cole spent several days this week with Mr. and Mrs. Clay at Demopolis, Ala.

Miss Kathleen Riley of Crystal Springs, Miss., is the house guest of Miss Mary Murphy.

Mr. Pugh Freeman of Pleasant Ridge, Ala., is spending a few days with friends in Macon.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Jordan and daughters are visiting relatives in Kosciusko this week.

Mrs. J. W. Holt has a very attractive guest, her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Julian Holt of Meridian.

Mrs. Ernest Lucas was called to Starkville Wednesday by the critical illness of Mrs. Jas. Lucas.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McHenry, Mr. Paul Ridley and Miss Alma Dinamore spent Thursday in Columbus.

Mrs. Alex. Manes of Brooksville has been the guest several days this week of Mrs. Richard Dare.

Misses Aby Woodward and Bessie Boggess spent several days this week with relatives in Brooksville.

Miss Lovellie Mai Chamberlain of Shuqualak is a guest in the home of her uncle, Mr. John A. Tyson.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Combs spent several days recently on a visit to the former's mother in Greenwood, Miss.

Mr. and Mrs. Tol Watt were in Macon Thursday, en route to Columbus to spend several days with friends.

Mrs. Chas. Bush was the guest several days last week in the home of Mrs. Fannie Patty at Bigbee Valley.

Mrs. H. L. J. Barnes and daughter Mary of Meridian will be guest of friends and relatives in Macon next week.

Judge H. Dent Minor and nephew Lucian Dent, who has been with him for the past year, arrived in Macon Friday.

Mrs. S. W. Harkins, Edwin and Miss Mary Harkins and Mrs. J. E. Dorroh motored to Aliceville, Ala., Tuesday.

Mrs. B. A. Cleary of Bell Buckle, Tenn., will arrive today to be the guest of her daughter, Mrs. W. M. Jones, Jr.

Mrs. H. L. J. Barnes and daughter Mary of Meridian will be the guests of friends and relatives in Macon next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Cunningham and Mr. and Mrs. Donahue of Bigbee Valley visited Mrs. E. E. Dantler one day this week.

Rev. Lundy Sykes, who is now in charge of the Episcopal church in Laurel, spent several days in Macon with friends.

Misses Olga Detherow, Lucile Peterson, Mary Herron and Cunningham of Brooksville, were in Macon last Saturday afternoon.

Miss Eleanor Jones returned home from a visit to relatives in Vicksburg. She was accompanied home by Miss Irene Short.

Prof. F. J. Hubbard, principal of the Agricultural High School, Ellisville, has been with his home-folks in Macon the past two weeks.

Miss Maurine Baker and her guests, Mrs. Carroll Steele of Birmingham, and Miss Lillian Hill of Eutaw, Ala., visited the city Tuesday.

Miss Mary Clyde Holt is at home after taking a course at the University of Virginia and a visit to her sister, Mrs. Elliott in Charlottesville, Va.

CHURCHES

PRESBYTERIAN

Rev. W. H. Perkins of Crawford will preach Sunday morning at 11 o'clock in the absence of Dr. Jones.

UNION

Service will be held on the Methodist lawn, conducted by Rev. W. H. Perkins at eight o'clock.

Rev. P. C. Barkley, of Birmingham, has accepted the call to the Baptist church in this city, and will arrive to take charge of the work on Sept. 1st.

SOCIAL DOINGS.

The hospitable home of Miss Lucile Cunningham at The Valley has been the scene of a most enjoyable week-end house party this week. Picture show parties, swimming, joy rides, dancing picnics were some of the pleasures that constituted the good time that the following parties had: Misses Olga Detherow, Lucile Peterson, Mary Hearon of Tennessee, Eppie Cunningham, Marie Gordon and Alice Calmes. Messrs. Call and Eichelberger of Anniston, Ala., Wallace Peterson of Brooksville, Squire Blair of Columbus, Featherston Lucas and Bill Sargent of Macon.

Very attractive invitations have been sent out to the missionary societies of the Baptist church for their monthly social meeting to be held in the home of Mrs. D. S. Barclay. Following is the invitation:

Dear Friend:
I'm writing you now so you cannot forget to come to our meeting—tho, I'm no snuffragist I believe that the women a power hath shown from Eve to Mrs. Eddy. Right here I make known a request that through granting a pleasure you'll find.
Read your Bible this week—of saints, sinners all kind,
But of facts 'bout its women be not mentally blind,
At our missionary meeting next Monday, and say,
We meet at my home—please do not stay away.
For should you not come two losers must pay.
Yourself and your friend
MRS. L'ESTELLE BARCLAY.

Mrs. J. W. Holt entertained a number of friends Thursday afternoon in honor of her guest, Mrs. Julian Holt of Meridian.

Miss Helene Carleton entertained Thursday evening at a "Movie Party" in honor of Miss Kelly Bill of Deersbrook and Miss Mary Haunstein of Hattiesburg.

Miss Rose Fant entertained her friends with a birthday party on last Saturday afternoon at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. C. C. Sessions.

Mrs. Tom Patty was hostess of the Fortnightly club on Tuesday afternoon. Miss Alice Bush was the prize-winner.

Mrs. Tom Boggess entertained at bridge on Friday morning, honoring her sister, Mrs. Brandon Grey of Texarkana.

Prof. L. A. Hurst, instructor of Agricultural High school at Poplarville, has been spending the week with relatives in the county. Prof. Hurst says that Peral River county has the best and most complete school system of any county in the state, having twenty consolidated schools, the majority of the buildings being of brick, and well equipped. Prof. Hurst has been agriculturist in the High School at Poplarville for five years.

Mr. Henry A. Minor left last Sunday for Chicago, where he will be for the next three months on the editorial staff of the National Democratic Campaign committee. He has a natural aptitude for that kind of work, and has had much experience in work of the same kind when he lived in Virginia.

Mr. A. T. Dent received a letter this week from his brother, Mr. William Dent, containing the news that Dr. William Macy of King's Park, New York, had suffered a stroke of paralysis. Dr. Macy came to Noduxee several times in past years with the late Dr. Emmett Dent and made many friends here who will regret to hear of his illness.

Mrs. C. S. Field, Mr. Hervey and Miss Callie Field were in Macon for a few hours Thursday afternoon. They returned last week from a month's stay with Gen. E. H. Woods, Mrs. Field's brother, near Bowling Green, Ky.

Dr. and Mrs. J. O. Morgan of the A. & M. College, Texas, who have been spending the past month with Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Minor and other relatives in Noduxee, left yesterday for North Carolina to visit Dr. Morgan's mother.

Sheriff and Mrs. Blanton of Attala county were with Mr. and Mrs. Smith Holt this week. They came over in their car last Saturday and Mrs. Holt returned to Kosciusko with them.

Dr. J. E. Jones of the Presbyterian church left Wednesday for Georgia, where he will spend a vacation of several weeks with friends and relatives at his old home in that state.

Mr. Alex. Deale, who has been manager for the Cumberland Telephone Co., in Columbus for the past year, has been spending a short vacation with relatives in the county.

Bill says we make clothes to fit your pocketbook as well as you. Yard length samples to select from.

Picture - Show Program

FOR THE WEEK

Beginning Monday, Aug. 21st, 1916

Monday, August 21st

The 12th Episode of The Iron Claw, and

PATHE NEWS No. 57

Showing German Submarine and Deutschland unloading, and other recent world happenings

Tuesday, August 22d

The PARAMOUNT Picture,

"The Call of the Cumberlands"

Featuring Dustin Farnum

Wednesday, August 23d

A UNIVERSAL Feature

"THE MAN INSIDE"

Featuring Edwin Stevens

Thursday, August 24th

The PARAMOUNT Picture,

"THE SPIDER"

Featuring Pauline Frederick

Friday, August 25th

MARY PICKFORD

IN

"RAGS"

Saturday, August 26th

"OUR LAUGH NIGHT"

This is Comedy Night

KEEP THIS PROGRAM

WEDDINGS

Shannon-Cooper

A Gretta Green wedding, another case of Love Laughing at the Locksmith occurred in Meridian last Monday morning at 2 o'clock, when Rev. D. H. Scanlon of the Presbyterian church performed the ceremony that made Mr. Harold D. Shannon of this place and Miss Irene Cooper of Pachuta man and wife. There was objections on account of the youth of the couple, but they managed to elude the watchful aunt of the bride and arrived in Meridian about 12 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Loyde Shannon went through from Macon in their car and they got into Meridian in time to witness the marriage. The happy young couple arrived in Macon Wednesday afternoon on the Mobile & Ohio.

Wilson-Tyson

Mr. Lyle J. Wilson and Miss Sallie Tyson, youngest daughter of Chancery Clerk John A. Tyson were married in Meridian last Saturday night. Mr. Wilson is from Clinton, Ky., and since he came to Macon about eight months ago, has been manager of the insurance offices of Cavett & Cavett. The following is a notice of the marriage taken from last Sunday's meridian Star:

Miss Tyson Weds Mr. Lyle J. Wilson
Saturday evening at 10 o'clock Miss Sara Tyson of Macon, who was the lovely guest of Miss Frances Griggs, and Mr. Lyle J. Wilson of Macon were united in marriage at the First Presbyterian church, Rev. D. H. Scanlon officiating.

The bride wore a green tailored suit with hat to match.

Miss Frances Griggs was present at the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson are spending a few days in the city and are at Hotel Meridian.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. John A. Tyson of Macon and the groom is a successful insurance man of Macon.

Mrs. Wilson has often visited Miss Griggs and possesses numerous friends to whom her marriage will be of much interest.—Meridian Star, Sunday, Aug. 13.

Mrs. W. F. Hickman will handle The S. Mayer & Son's of New York City line of celebrated Lids for Kids.

Large double door iron safe 49 by 67 outside measure, to exchange for a smaller one. Box 152, Macon, Miss.

For Rent—Three rooms and kitchen for rent. J. F. SHELTON.

For Sale 20,000 feet of good lumber cut for barn at $9.00 per thousand and if the whole lot is taken. Also my Black Shetland buggy and harness. BEN M. BOGGESS.

For Rent Store house on Jefferson street now occupied by the Macon pool room. Possession given September 1st. BRAME & SMITH.

Lost Monday night, between Jones' grocery store and picture show, a canvas pin. Finder please return to this office and receive reward.

Notice to the Public
All parties having guns, pistols, watches, clocks, bicycles, etc., left in my shop for repair and have been repaired and held on hand for sixty days, are hereby notified that said articles will be sold for charges on Monday, Sept. 4th. Call for your article and pay charges if you do not want it sold. R. S. COLEMAN, Macon, Miss.

FOR SALE AT A BARGAIN
The sawmill plant of W. A. Eberly Wheel Works located at depot. Call phone No. 88 or see D. M. Lutz, Supt.

RESIDENCES FOR RENT

For Rent—House occupied by Mr. Bryant Lucas. Possession September 1st. MISS EMMA THORNTON. See Brame & Smith.

House for Rent The seven-room cottage on Wayne street now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Herbert. Electric lights, water, and modern conveniences. Possession given September 1st. Apply to. MR. JOHN R. DINAMORE. JOHN R. DINAMORE.

Cottage For Sale Cheap. Apply to F. A. THOMPSON.

For Sale or Rent

Residence north of Mrs. S. A. Holberg's residence for sale or rent. Apply to L. F. HOLBERG, Macon.

FOR RENT!

Two nice 6-room cottages, with all modern improvements—Lights, Water and Bath, conveniently located. Possession given Sept. 1st.

Apply to

W. W. SHANNON.

Short horn bulls, registered, ready for service; also one Berkshire boar. For sale by D. CRESWELL, Prairie Point, Miss.

FOR RENT

Large brick store at Macon depot. Price $15.00 a month. N. SCALES.

FOR RENT

Large brick warehouse at depot. Price $15 per month. N. SCALES.

WANTED

Stock to pasture on Eland place two miles southeast of Macon. Plenty grass and water. a294t P. H. HUNTER

FOR RENT

Frame warehouse at depot. Price $5.00 per month. N. SCALES

DUROCS FOR SALE

Eighteen pure bred Duroc pigs for sale or will trade for common pigs; one Duroc for two of some weight. They weigh from 40 to 60 pounds. Pure-bred Poland-China boar for sale or will trade for 200 lb. hog. T. S. BOGGESS, Macon, Miss.

TWO REGISTERED JERSEY BULLS FOR SALE

One King bull two years old and one five year old; latter is sired by Fox-Glove Eminent, he by Old Eminent, out of Flying Fox cow. This bull's heifers test from one per cent to one and 9-10ths per cent better than their dams. Any dairyman knows what it means to own a bull like this. Reason for selling do not care to inbreed any more. T. S. BOGGESS, R. F. D. No. 2 Macon, Miss.

Kuykendall's Greaseless Liquid Eczema Remedy

Is The Greatest Eczema and Skin Remedy of the World.

Cures all kinds of itching skin troubles now, poison oak, itch, ringworms, chicken-pox, any itching skin. Sores resembling cancers. Physicians fail, this remedy cures. Samples to sufferers. For sale by

Ed. M. Murphy, Macon, Brooksville Drug Co., Brooksville, O. F. Hamilton, Shuqualak.

$ Bill Sargent has been acting marshal the past ten days in the place of Marshal Maury, who is taking his vacation. $ Bill says the town is distressingly and unprofitably good and he has made but one arrest since he has been wearing the star.

Leave your hemstitching and picotting orders at usual price of 10 cts per yd. with Mrs. W. F. Hickman.

Mr. Ed. Smythe was in town this week with some wheat to have ground into flour. He said that he had five acres of wheat and made enough to do his family several years. He also said his corn crop which he planted after turning under a crop of crimson clover, was the best in his neighborhood but not as good as it should be.

NOTICE

I take this method of letting my friends and patrons of Brooksville and vicinity know that I will be at the Heaton Hotel every Tuesday. If you have any Watch or Jewelry Repairing or Engraving call on My work and price guaranteed.

E. AVERY, Jeweler and Eng'r, Prop. Macon Jewelry Store, Macon, Mississippi.

to the things that count; ancient whittler.

Mr. Walter Connor and family went to Laurel the early part of the week through the country. They found the roads very good nearly all the way and made the trip going and coming with only one puncture. Mr. Don Zepernick returned with them.

Mr. Ed. Bell, who has been in charge of the Southern Express office in Montgomery, Ala., for several years, spent several days this week with Dr. Maugh's Brown. Mrs. Bell and Mrs. Brown will be over in October.

Mr. C. D. Featherston and his brother-in-law, Mr. Whitman Davis had a narrow escape from a serious accident last Sunday afternoon, when their car turned over in a ditch near Mr. Scales place two miles east of Macon. They were pinned under the car and both considerably bruised and shaken up. A negro boy named Albert Colbert was hit by the car at the same time, but was only slightly hurt.

Brooke Ferris as every one knows, is aggravatingly pro-German, just to differ with the balance of us. He became almost hilariously jubilant one day this week when some one announced that the Turks had taken the Alimentary canal.